ADA:
Any student who has a disability and is in need of classroom accommodations, please contact the instructor and the Services for Students with Disabilities Office in Old Library 2136 at the beginning of the semester.

CHEATING:
All tests, homework, and programs must be retained as proof of scores received. The departmental policy on plagiarism and collaboration will be honored. Students violating the policy will be subject to disciplinary action as prescribed by the University of Wisconsin System Student Disciplinary Procedures Chapter 14 U.W.S. as passed by the Board of Regents and implemented by UWEC. Disciplinary action for this course includes, but is not limited to, failure of the course.

COMPUTER USAGE:
Students are given access to computers maintained by the Department of Computer Science for educational purposes only. Access may be denied or suspended if the resources are used inappropriately.

CLASSROOM CIVILITY:
As members of this class, we are members of a larger learning community where excellence is achieved through civility. Our actions affect everyone in our community. Courtesy is reciprocated and extends beyond our local setting, whether in future jobs, classes, or communities. Civility is not learned individually, it is practiced as a community.
